

Programme

Conflicts and complex crises - how evaluation contributes to learning

Monday, 11 June 2018, 12.00 – 16.15

Eigtveds Pakhus, Hall III, Asiatisk Plads, Copenhagen

From 12.00	Registration
12.30	Welcome & Introduction. Nanna Hvidt, Head of Department, Evaluation & Research, Ministry of Foreign Affairs & Per Øyvind Bastøe, Evaluation Director, Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation
12.40	Session 1 Keynote address Anita Bay Bundegaard, International Advocacy Director and UN Representative, Save the Children International
13.15	Session 2 "Striking the balance" – evaluation of the planning, organization & management of Norwegian assistance related to the Syria regional crisis Introduction by Anette Wilhelmsen, Project Leader, Norad
13.30	"Durable solutions to the refugee crisis" - evaluation of the Regional Development & Protection Programme in Lebanon, Jordan & Iraq (multi-donor managed by Denmark). Introduction by Ian Christoplos, team leader of the evaluation
13.45	"Realizing potential" - evaluation of Norway's support to education in conflict & crisis through Civil Society Organisations. Introduction by Lillian Prestegard, Project Leader, Norad
14.00	Introduction to the conclusions of an evaluation of the Danish "Africa Programme for Peace" (2004-17). Peter Brorsen, team leader of the evaluation
14.15	Coffee & tea
14.45	Session 3 Fish bowl debate with the four evaluation speakers in the panel Moderated by Per Øyvind Bastøe, Evaluation Director, Norad
16.00-16.15	Session 4 Summing up